December 1st. The Minister of War will take steps for having at least 100 fieldpieces of the army of Italy horsed and made ready for active service as rapidly as possible.

Have a plan drawn up for placing all flags captured from the enemy under the dome of the Invalides; have the chronology of the victories of the Republic engraved on marble tablets.

4th. The Minister of War will send for Generals Moreau and Clarke to draw up a plan of operations for the new army of the Rhine. It will be reinforced.

5th. Concentrate at Lyons the remnants of the demi-brigades of the 8th military division that were formerly with the army of Italy, and reorganize them so that in three or four months we can form an army of reserve.

6th. If Sieyes goes to the country, draw up the plan of a constitution quickly; I will push it through.

7th. Inform General Moreau that the Consuls think there is urgent need he should join the army.

14th. The Constitution is being drawn up.

Citoyen Daunou, Sit down there, (and write.)

The decision of the First Consul shall be sufficient! (Sieyes: my only wish is to retire.)

15th. A constitution should be short and obscure.

(To the People of France.) A constitution is submitted to vou. It will bring[1] to an end the uncertainties which
